RIVERSIDE -- The Inland Empire Atheists and Agnostics (IEAA) is holding its annual Darwin Day celebration on Thursday, February 13th, beginning at 6:00 p.m. in the upstairs auditorium of the Riverside Public Library at 3581 Mission Inn Ave, Riverside, CA 92501.

Darwin Day is a global celebration of science and reason held on or around Feb. 12, the birthday anniversary of evolutionary biologist Charles Darwin. This year, the IEAA is celebrating the 204th birthday of Charles Darwin.

This Darwin Day event will feature a special presentation by Gregory McKinley-Powell, titled "The Origin of Evolution," a multimedia discussion on how early discoveries in Geology and Zoology inspired Darwin to create his landmark theory.

In celebration of Darwin's achievements, the evening will end with a birthday cake in Darwin's honor. Refreshments and pizza will be served at 6:00 pm for a small donation.

The IEAA is the Inland Empire's largest group for atheists and other non-believers. The IEAA's goal is to create a safe and welcoming place for Atheists, Agnostics, Freethinkers, Skeptics and Secular Humanists of all ages from across the Inland Empire.
