Inland Atheists host "God's Brothel," a look at Mormon polygamy and the abuse it creates

RIVERSIDE -- Join The Inland Empire Atheists and Agnostics this month as author Andrea Moore-Emmett discusses her book, "God's Brothel: The Extortion of Sex for Salvation in Contemporary Mormon and Christian Fundamentalist Polygamy and the Stories of 18 Women Who Escaped" on Thursday March 13, at 6:00 pm at Mexicali Bar & Grill, located at the corner of Spruce St. And Chicago Ave., 1650 Spruce St, Riverside, CA 92507.

"God's Brothel" reveals shocking facts about Bible-based polygamy through the brave voices of 18 women who escaped from 10 of the 11 main religious groups, as well as independent families. Their stories include rape, incest, orgies, and violence, making this form of polygamy more akin to sexual slavery than to any quaint religious or lifestyle choice.

Andrea Moore-Emmett is also the author of numerous articles including several covering polygamy for various national magazines and was the researcher for the A&E documentary, 'Inside Polygamy,' which also aired on the BBC.

The Inland Empire Atheists and Agnostics (IEAA) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit. The IEAA's goal is to provide community, education, and advocacy for Atheists, Agnostics, Freethinkers, Skeptics and Secular Humanists of all ages from across the Inland Empire.
